

Elul By Marvin Broitman

I have been inspired by the Elul stories I have read this year. As I think about them on this Sunday afternoon sitting outside on our patio with beautiful sunshine and a nice breeze in 78 degree temperature I fight off the thoughts of the pandemic, the less than wonderful election and the violence about us. Instead I think of the good happenings we are experiencing. Our children and grandchildren, our friends and our Temple, Rabbi's, Cantor, Temple staff and hardworking active members working to help us get through difficult period. Aren't we fortunate.

I wish you all a good fall and a wonderful Yom Tov.
