Yom Kippur Memorial Booklet "Book of Remembrance"

As part of our High Holiday traditions, we are preparing the "Book of Remembrance" to be a memorial to our departed loved ones.

Yizkor prayers are recited four times a year and our Yizkor book is a beautiful way to consecrate the passing of those who live on in our memories. It is customary to make a tzedakah donation in accordance with the spirit of the Yizkor Service, as a way to honor the righteousness of the deceased.

Fill out the enclosed form and mail it back with your $54 by Friday, Aug 28th to TBT or fill out the digital form emailed to you or on our website.

TBT SWAG BAGS

We have created a goody bag to help you create a Mishkan Maat-- a small sanctuary in your home and to make the Holidays a little sweeter.

You can pick up your Swag Bag on

Sunday, September 13 Time: TBD

(Come say Hi to the Rabbis, Cantor and Leadership)

Or it will be delivered to your home during the week.

Home for the High Holiday - Together Beyond Tradition @TBT

You will receive a link to a YouTube Channel to watch services and Zoom Links for the interactive discussions/services. This will be sent out a few days before the Holidays to all dues paying members who have registered for the link or filled out a ticket form.

Friday, September 18

Erev Rosh HaShana Service 7:45-9:15 PM

A lovely way to start the holidays with all of the familiar melodies and prayers which this year will include some Shabbat favorites. Rabbi Moskowitz will be sharing her sermon during the service.

Saturday, September 19

Traditional TBT Rosh HaShana Service 9:15-10:45 AM

This High Holiday worship experience will most closely resemble the services we have customarily had in the main sanctuary (formerly called Early and Late). It will include all of your favorite prayers, beautiful music from Cantor Appelbaum and some guests, Torah Readings and teachings from Rabbi Moskowitz and Rabbi Wiesenberg.

Collage Service 12:00 –1:30 PM

A new offering that combines the best parts of the family service with wonderful elements from the traditional TBT service. Perfect for families with kids in elementary and middle school and teens but also for anyone who wants to enjoy the teen band and learn more about the elements that make the High Holidays so special. We will include a Torah Reading and Shofar Service. Rabbi Gellman will join us for a story/sermon.

Rosh HaShana Sermon 11:00 AM

Rabbi Gellman will deliver the sermon. This separate module can be accessed whether you are attending the Traditional TBT or the Collage Service.

Meet and Greet 2:00-3:00 PM

A zoom opportunity to say hello to the Rabbis & Cantor and connect with other friendly TBT faces. Join us for the whole time or just pop-in to say Shana Tova!

Children's Services 3:00-3:40 PM

A fun 30-40 Minute experiential service designed for ECE kids ages 1-8 years. Songs, stories and even some magic to introduce the themes of the Holidays. You provide the apples and honey.

Tashlich 4:30 PM

An in person opportunity to cast your sins (symbolized with bread crumbs) into the water. We will be meeting at a body of water TBD. It will also be a chance to hear the shofar blown in person. Grab your mask and some bread crumbs.

Sunday, September 20

Second Day Rosh HaShana 10:00 AM-12:00 PM

This zoom service will be the same format as our weekly Friday night services. It will include all your favorite Rosh HaShana prayers and songs, teachings from Rabbi Moskowitz and Rabbi Wiesenberg; and Rabbi Gellman's famous Days of Creation teaching.

*Exclusive to Temple Beth Torah Members

Monday, September 21– Saturday, September 26

Schedule a visit for you and your family to spend time in the sanctuary. You can stand before the open ark, decorate and leave a stone on our Memorial table, visit your family's yearzeit plaques or just meditate. See website for sign up options.

Sunday, September 27

Kol Nidre 7:45-9:15 PM

This evening service will include the haunting melody of Kol Nidre, a moving sermon from Rabbi Moskowitz, prayers and teachings from Rabbi Wiesenberg and an update on the congregation from Vanessa Newman, our president. You will have a chance to submit your Kol Nidre pledge to support TBT today and in the future.

Monday, September 28

Traditional TBT Yom Kippur Service 9:15-10:45 PM

This High Holiday worship experience will most closely resemble the services we have customarily had in the main sanctuary (formerly called Early and Late). It will include all of your favorite prayers, beautiful music from Cantor Appelbaum and some guests, Torah Readings and teachings from Rabbi Moskowitz and Rabbi Wiesenberg.

Collage Service 12:00 –1:30 PM

A new offering that combines the best parts of the family service with wonderful elements from the traditional TBT service. Perfect for families with kids in elementary and middle school and teens but also for anyone who wants to enjoy the teen band and learn more about the elements that make the High Holidays so special. We will include a Torah Reading and Shofar Service. Rabbi Moskowitz, Rabbi Wiesenberg and Cantor Appelbaum will lead us with joy and song.

 Yom Kippur Sermon 11:00 AM

Rabbi Moskowitz will deliver the sermon. This separate module can be accessed whether you are attending the Traditional TBT or the Collage Service.

Yom Kippur Study Sessions 2:00-3:00 PM

Join Rabbi Moskowitz, Rabbi Wiesenberg and Cantor Appelbaum for a Zoom class on Forgiveness and Apology. This will be a wonderful chance to study face to face on zoom.

Children's Services 3:00-3:40 PM

A fun 30-40 Minute experiential service designed for ECE kids ages 1-8 years. Songs, stories and even some magic to introduce the themes of the Holidays. You provide the apples and honey.

Yizkor 4:30-5:00 PM Our beautiful Memorial service is a chance for you to remember those you've loved and lost with the melodies and prayers of our Jewish tradition.

Reflect, Repent, Renew 5:00-5:50 PM

Our special musical service with poetry and meditation to help you internalize the power of Yom Kippur. We have selected more contemporary songs, poems and prayers to help us access the themes of this most awesome day.

Ne'eilah 5:50-6:30 PM- the concluding service for Yom Kippur gives us a last chance to set our souls for the coming year. We conclude with a spectacular shofar blowing. And right before you break the fast we make Havdalah as a way to help us end this holy day and transition into the year.
