May it be Your will, Adonai our God, to grant us a good and sweet year.*

Shehecheyanu

Each year, the first time we eat a fruit that only grows at a certain time of year, we say a special blessing, the shehecheyanu, on this new fruit. (Add a new food, like a pomegranate for the 2nd night so you can say this again)

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יי אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם שֶׁחַיֵּינוּ וְקִיְּמָנוּ וְהִגִּיעָנוּ לְזְמַן הַזֶּה

Barukh ata adonai elohenu melekh ha-olam, she-hecheyanu, v'kiy'manu, v'higi'anu la-z'man ha-zeh

Blessed are You, the One who has kept us alive and sustained us so that we could reach this moment.

May our words and deeds in the new year create for us a life worthy of Your blessing.

YOM KIPPUR PRAYERS FOR THE HOME

Begin by Lighting a Yahrzeit candle.

Have everyone share a person who has passed away of whom they are thinking.

There are stars whose light reaches the earth only after they themselves have disintegrated. And there are individuals whose memory lights the world after they have passed from it. These lights shine in the darkest night and illumine a path for us... Hannah Senesh

Blessing over the Holiday candles

As the sacred night of Yom Kippur begins, may the sight of these candles kindle within us a spirit of devotion and repentance
May we forgive one another as we seek divine forgiveness, drawing closer to one another in love and drawing closer to God's law of righteousness and truth.
