ELUL STORIES
Sharing our stories, sharing lives, creating community

Elul is the month leading up to Rosh HaShanah. Each day during the month, a different Temple Beth Torah congregate will share an Ethical Will or portion of one in order to help us prepare for this season of self reflection and personal growth.

It is very simple
Jan Sheinkopf

I would like to tell my children, and loved one’s this-

If someone needs help in this life, and you can help them, help them each and every time. This will make a better world for all.

Jan Sheinkopf and her husband Paul have been members of TBT for 23 years. They enjoy spending time with Matthew and his wife Karen, and Laura and her fiancé Mark. They recently celebrated their grandson, Josh’s 1st Birthday.

Would you like to share your Elul Story? Write an ethical will, in the form of a letter, a story or a collections of sayings. Include the "gifts" you would like to leave to your family focusing on the values and character traits which you feel are most important. Send it in its entirety or send a section of it to: ravsusie@gmail.com.
If you missed any of the previous Elul Stories you can go to www.tbtly.org (media galleries/elul stories).