Temple Beth Torah (TBT) Melville to Offer Free Children's Services During High Holidays

*Services are open to the public for families with children
2 thru 9 years-of-age on Oct 3 and Oct 12*

Melville, NY – Temple Beth Torah, an active Reform Temple in Melville, has announced that it will be offering free high holidays services open to the public to families with children from 2 thru 9 years-of-age at 3:30 PM on Monday October 3 and Wednesday October 12 at 35 Bagatelle Rd in Melville. Rabbi Moskowitz, Rabbi Wiesenbergs and Cantor Appelbaum will be joined by various performers for a 45-minute service filled with songs, stories, activities and -- of course -- the blowing of the shofar.

“We’ve been offering these high holidays children’s services for many years now,” said Rabbi Susie Henson Moskowitz, Senior Rabbi at Temple Beth Torah. “They provide an engaging, age appropriate opportunity for families to enjoy the themes of the holidays and celebrate together with other members of the community.”

About Temple Beth Torah Melville

Founded in 1969, Temple Beth Torah Melville is an active and inclusive Reform Jewish Congregation of over 600 families serving the Western Suffolk and Eastern Nassau County areas of Long Island. Its extended temple family shares rich educational, spiritual and social experiences through a full spectrum of programming -- including religious and nursery school, religious services, and teen and adult activities. Members come to Temple Beth Torah to pray, to learn and to celebrate. Its culture is diverse and inclusive, and encourages participation by all age groups.
