Temple Beth Torah Melville to Present a Special Shabbat Service Honoring Dr Martin Luther King Jr on January 13th

Celebration to include prayer and music from the TBT Band and Choir, joined by the City of Oasis Church Gospel Choir

Melville, NY – Temple Beth Torah (TBT), an active and inclusive Reform Temple in Melville, will be offering a special Shabbat Service in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr at 6:30 PM Friday January 13, 2017 at 35 Bagatelle Rd in Melville.

The celebration of Dr King’s legacy will include prayer and uplifting music from the TBT band and choir. They will be accompanied by Pastor Jonathan Mack and the Gospel Choir of the City of Oasis Church of Far Rockaway NY.

The special service is open to the public and will be followed by dinner. Dinner cost is $15 for TBT members and $20 for non-members. RSVP is required to 631-643-1200 ext 2.

“We are very pleased and excited to honor Dr King and to share this wonderful spiritual and musical event with our temple members and friends,” said Sarene Appelbaum, Cantor at Temple Beth Torah. “The joining together of the TBT band and choir with the City of Oasis Church Gospel Choir will provide a very unique musical experience for those who attend.”
