

CUBA - A Jewish Mission

Nov 8 - 13, 2018 (5 nights)

Add-on: Nov 13 – 15, 2018 (2 nights)

Dear Friends,

Going to Cuba is an opportunity to experience a foreign country right in our backyard. Not only will we be able to see the sights, hear the music and taste the food we will also learn about the Jewish community in Cuba. We have visits planned to several Jewish communities and schools. This trip will also have Social Action components including bringing items to help the groups we are visiting. As the trip gets closer we will find out what is most needed and then collect items to bring with us. Please join Temple Beth Torah and me as we travel together to Cuba. Going on a Temple Trip is a wonderful way to make new friends and to deepen your understanding of what it means to be part of the larger Jewish world.

L'shalom,

Rabbi Susie Henneson Moskowitz
