from THE OTHER END OF THE STETHOSCOPE with Debra Blaine, MD, on the evolving crisis in our new world of health care, as patients become mere consumers.

She will read from and sign copies of her first novel, CODE BLUE; a political commentary about western culture, which values profit over the needs of our people and our planet, played out in a riveting medical thriller.

"Code Blue vividly describes the underbelly of medicine—what it's like to try to remain a careful, dedicated doctor in an impersonal system infected and overtaken by corporate greed. Into this setting, Dr. Debra Blaine weaves a murder mystery, dropping tantalizing clues that point toward a world-wide medical conspiracy, and providing enough detail to make you believe it really could happen. Don't miss the crescendo to a heart-pounding climax!" —Ken Kamler, MD, Best-selling author of "Surviving the Extremes"; TV and Multimedia Medical Consultant; International Medical Lecturer

Wednesday, September 4, 7:00 PM

Temple Beth Torah
35 Bagatelle Road
Melville, NY 11747
(631)643-1200

Admission to the event is free. Copies of Code Blue will be available for sale.
Light refreshments will be served.

Debra E. Blaine is from Long Island, New York and has been practicing medicine for nearly thirty years. While this first novel is fiction, its purpose is to disclose the alarming direction medicine is taking, while entertaining us with a fast-paced murder mystery.

She has a grown son in medical school and is a member of the Board of Trustees of Temple Beth Torah.

NEW SECURITY PATTERN

On the recommendation from Homeland Security, we have made the following changes to our facility safety procedures.

As of Thursday, May 9, 2019, Temple Beth Torah will be keeping all three (3) of its driveway entrances closed when the Temple is not in use. This will be achieved with a chain and reflective sign stating "ENTRANCE CLOSED".

During regular operating hours, only specific entrances will be opened. The middle will be for ENTER ONLY and the most southern opening is for EXIT ONLY. The Northern opening will be closed at all times with chain and reflective sign "ENTRANCE CLOSED".

Please follow diagram for new traffic pattern and drop off procedure. Drop offs under canopy are for Handicapped and Valet only!

Thank you for your cooperation to help make our synagogue a safe and thriving environment.
